NOTES OF THE TURF.

The two-year-old daughter of Joe Hooker and Marion, Vera Reina, died of lung fever at Sacramento some days ago. She was a full sister to Yo Tambien and half sister to Emperor of Norfolk and El Rio Rey. That excellent turf journal, the Breeder and Sportsman of San Francisco, in commenting on the filly's death says: "By a strange fatality all the daughters of Marion have met tragic deaths. Yo Tambien ran into a fence and died from lockjaw while turned out into a paddock in Kentucky. Duchess of Norfolk, who ran two miles and a quarter in 3:58½ as a three-year-old, was killed by running into a fence at Sacramento, while Vera fell in a race at Sheepshead Bay and broke a blood vessel. Theodore Winters predicted that Vera Reina would come to a sudden end."

Old Toano, a fast horse, who used to be used as a sampler for speed purposes at Rancho del Paso, was almost burned to death in a San Francisco fire some days ago and shot to end his suffering. Toano uncovered Salvador after the colt had been "passed up" as unworthy of a place in the select Haggis string. Toano was eleven years old, by Longfellow—Salara, by the English Salvador.

The Atkin & Lottridge racing confederacy of California will bring a strong stable east this year. It will include Scarborough, Scarf Pin, Buckwa, Manchester and Double Quick and eight Rancho del Paso bred youngsters, as follows: Maximore, Latinus, Briar Hill, Spinwell, Milesio and three unnamed.
